

10/97

Upon this tenth day of January, nineteen hundred and ninety-seven, came and appeared before me, Elco Sutan Rosario, notary at law, established on Sint Maarten, residing on Sint Maarten, in the presence of the witnesses to be mentioned hereinafter:

-- Ms. LUCILLE JACQUELINE JAMES, residing on Sint Maarten.

The appearer, declares by these presents to set aside the amount of NAF.100,-- (ONEHUNDRED NETHERLANDS ANTILLEAN GUILDERS) and to form therewith a Foundation, that shall be governed by the following articles of incorporation:

NAME, SEAT AND DURATION

Article 1.

The Foundation bears the name of: "HELPING HANDS FOUNDATION".

It has its seat on Sint Maarten and is formed for an unlimited period of time.

OBJECTIVE

Article 2.

The objectives of the Foundation are:

1. to enhance the well-being of and promote respect, acceptance and appreciation for senior citizens on Sint Maarten;
2. to assist senior citizens who need daily help in getting around to live a comfortable life;
3. to promote research about all issues relevant to enhancing the well being of senior citizens;
4. to inform and educate in particular our youths about the contributions made by elderly people to the progress of Sint Maarten in particular;
5. in general to organize social cultural, educationalm recreational activities for senior citizens on Sint Maarten.

MEANS

Article 3.

The Foundation shall pursue its objective through:

- a. the organizing of workshops, seminars, symposia, lectures, meetings and other types of educational, cultural and social-cultural events;
- b. the publishing of articles and newsletters, the producing of radio- and t.v. programmes and the rendering of other kind of information about its objectives;
- c. hosting guestspeakers;
- d. cooperating and maintaining close links with individuals, institutions and organizations pursuing similar goals on and off the island;
- e. all other legally permissable means which would further the objectives of the Foundation.

FINANCES

Article 4.

The finances of the Foundation shall consist of:

- a. the initial amount that has been set aside at the formation of the Foundation;
- b. subsidies and donations;